

Project title: Baltic active education Network for development of people-to-people initiatives – eduPEOPLE

Source of co-financing: South Baltic Cross-border Co-operation Programme 2007-2013

Priority axis 2. Attractiveness and common identity.
Activity 2.4. Local community initiatives.

Realization period: 01.09.2009 – 30.12.2011

Total budget: 350 430 EUR

Co-financing quota: 245 250 EUR

Gdynia's contribution: 22 500 EUR

VAT: 20 680 EUR

Project target and planned results: eduPEOPLE project partners are two science centres - EXPERYMENT Science Centre from Gdynia and eXperimentLabbet from Kalmar, Sweden.

eduPEOPLE Project aims raising active education awareness in the South Baltic region on cross-border level, especially among teachers. It will result with number of training occasions to promote science centres as a tool for operating within new education, and with dissemination of active education. Project also aims increasing children's and youth's interest in science and increasing status of science among local societies, which will result with the size of involvement in the festival of experiments. eduPEOPLE Project has also the purpose of activating teachers and working out together with them new model of education and disseminating of good active education practices by pilot methods and trainings, which will result with size of knowledge worked out and handed down. Intensifying intercultural dialogue and improving local societies involvement in people-to-people initiatives is also an important part of the eduPEOPLE project.

Project leader: Gdynia Innovation Centre, Budgetary Unit

Project coordinator: Natalia Grzywacz - Leszkowska, +48 58 735 11 38, n.grzywacz-leszkowska@gci.gdynia.pl